

The ECO Bank Meeting and Luncheon to the Honour of the ECO Council of Permanent Representatives, 5 January 2012, İstanbul

ECO Trade and Development Bank organised a meeting and luncheon to the honour of the Council of Permanent Representatives (CPR) of the Economic Cooperation Organization (ECO) on the occasion of their 173rd Meeting taking place in İstanbul, between 5 and 7 January 2012.

The meeting was attended by the Ambassadors and the high level officials of the Respectful Member Countries to the Economic Cooperation Organisation together with the Secretary General of the ECO, H.E. M. Yahya Maroofi.

Following the welcome speech of the President of the ECO Bank,

Dr. Hossein Ghazavi, ECO Bank staff members made presentations on ECO Region Economies in the Post Global Crisis Era, ECO Bank and Its Role in Regional Development, Products and Functions of the Banking & Non-Banking Financial Institutions and Corporate & Project Financing Departments of the ECO Bank.

During presentations brief information were given on medium-term business perspectives, product line, products and services of the ECO Bank. Facilities for small and medium sized enterprises and trade finance were also addressed during the presentations. After the questions and answers section, President Dr. Ghazavi invited all ECO member countries to join to the Bank in order to reap the benefits of the Bank's financial products.